

Clairvoyant Countes

Jolene MacFadden-Kowalchuk

Here's a puzzle for the Dorothy Gilman fans from this month's featured book "The Clairvoyant Countess"

Across

- 2 crystallized carbon
- 6 capital of hungary
- 8 very organized crime
- 11 poisonous plant purplish-red flowers black berries
- 13 divining facts by contact with an object
- 14 profoundly cruel or evil
- 15 constantly chaning set of colors
- 17 religion practiced chiefly in the Carribean
- 18 shop specializing in herbs and/or spiritual items
- 19 communicating wihout apparent physical signals
- 22 poisonous salt of hydrocyanic acid
- 23 customers or patrons

Down

- 1 one who predicts the future
- 3 person who makes fradulent claims
- 4 one who has acheived state of perfect enlightenment
- 5 outside of natural or scientific knowledge
- 7 initial extrasensory perception
- 9 person who specializes in medieval chemical science
- 10 meeting of people to receive spiritual messages
- 12 knowledge of something in advance
- 15 fate or destiny
- 16 flavored ice on a stick
- 20 grayish-white element forming poisonous compound
- 21 pertaining to magic