REVIEW OF YOUR FAVORITE DOROTHY GILMAN BOOK:

We are going to be doing something a little different here. I would like to invite all of you to review your favorite Dorothy Gilman book and send it in for the next issue.

Anyone wishing to contribute a review please email on by the 15th of the month. We will review them and pick one for the next issue. Try not to review one that has already been done. The review is for those fans and/or future fans who haven't had a chance to read the book. Your will just need to include the following:

Title of the Book

A Short Synopsis

What you Liked Most

What you Like Least

So do your best!

Jolene's Review of Mrs. Pollifax on Safari:

I consider this one of my favorite Mrs Pollifax stories. It has everything, adventure, intrigue and a little romance. That's right folks are favorite spy goes on an African Safari to "Shoot" game. Well pictures that is and meets an old friend and gains a very special new one. There isn't anything I don't like except for maybe it's ends all to soon and there's everything to like. A well-written story to delight readers of all ages!

Puzzle of the Month

We have created a search-a-word puzzle for the story Mrs. Pollifax on Safari. We are sending the puzzle with the newsletter as a separate file and will be adding the Acrobat Reader file to the website for you to download in a few days. Newsletters on the Web

The winners will receive a copy of another magazine story that is listed on the website!

Fan Email of the Month

Hello, I am the webkeeper for the Cherry Lawn School website. Dorothy taught at the school for a while. She currently lives in Westport, Connecticut. The Cherry Lawn School website includes online copies of yearbooks, including the period when Mrs. Butters taught there.

Best regards, Mike Manners
